Summary of the Timely Disclosure Q&A Session on July 30, 2021

The following is a summary of a Q&A session following a telephone conference, held on July 30, 2021, explaining the announcement of 'Notice of Extraordinary Losses Resulting in Revisions to the Forecast of Consolidated Results'.

	Question	Answer
1	On what basis were the extraordinary losses calculated?	Chiyoda recognized extraordinary losses by re-evaluating rights and obligations from all disputes with the Customer and considering the current status of discussions.
2	Which discussions and arbitration do the extraordinary losses cover when multiple discussions and arbitrations are ongoing related to the Ichthys LNG project?	There are two disputes related to the project: one with the Customer and the other with a subcontractor. Extraordinary losses cover the former. There has been no progress related to the dispute with the subcontractor. Chiyoda will disclose any progress in timely manner.
3	Will there be a cash outflow?	There is no cash outflow. Chiyoda recognized extraordinary losses by re-evaluating rights and obligations between Chiyoda and the Customer.
