Chiyoda Concludes MOU with Mozambique ENH

Chiyoda Corporation (“Chiyoda”, TSE: ISIN: JP3528600004) announces that Chiyoda has concluded a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Mozambique Enterprise of National Hydrocarbon (ENH), witnessed by Mozambican President H.E. Mr. Filipe Jacinto Nyusi, to train ENH Engineers.

Chiyoda has educated hundreds of engineers from many different countries in the design and engineering of hydrocarbon processing plants.

Chiyoda provided training programs for approximately 70 engineers since executing the MOU on training of ENH Engineers in 2014, and in concluding this new MOU, Chiyoda accepted ENH’s request to continue the training programs. Chiyoda utilizes its extensive experience to support Mozambique’s sustainable development by allowing ENH Engineers to acquire the knowledge and practical skills required for the future.
